

Export Controlled Information Acknowledgement

Export Controlled Information

The receiving party acknowledges that they are receiving information from the University of Washington identified as export controlled. Export Controlled Information is unclassified information that does not meet the standards for national security classification but is nonetheless pertinent to the national interests of the United States, and requires, from unauthorized disclosure, special handling safeguards, or prescribed limits on its exchange or dissemination.

U.S. Export Control Laws and Regulations

The receiving party understands that the use, disposition, export and re-export of export controlled technology or information is subject to U.S. export laws and regulations, including: Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended; the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. 2751 et seq.); Export Administration Act of 1979 (50 U.S.C. 4601 et seq.); Export Control Reform Act of 2018 (50 U.S.C. 4801-4852); Assistance to Foreign Atomic Energy Activities (10 CFR part 810); Export and Import of Nuclear Equipment and Material (10 CFR part 110); International Traffic in Arms Regulations (22 CFR parts 120 et seq.); Export Administration Regulations (15 CFR part 730 et seq.); and the Foreign Assets Control Regulations (31 CFR parts 500 et seq.).

Disclosure and/or Transfer

The receiving party understands that the disclosure and/or transfer of export controlled technology or information may require agency or sponsor approval. Prior to the transfer or disclosure, electronic screening of potential parties and end users should be performed against restricted party lists. In the event that a company, entity or person on the list appears to match a party potentially involved in your export transaction, additional due diligence must be conducted before proceeding. Contact exports@uw.edu for guidance.

For more information on restricted party screening, please see <https://www.washington.edu/research/myresearch-lifecycle/manage/compliance-requirements-non-financial/export-control/>.
